UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Alberto Mpiana Da Mesquita E Melo,

Plaintiff,

v.

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services
(USCIS), et al.,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:24-cv-01030-JAD-EJY

Stipulation & Order to Stay the Proceedings (Sixth Request)

ECF No. 27

Plaintiff and Defendants, through their undersigned counsel, hereby stipulate and jointly request that the Court stay all deadlines in this matter and hold this case in abeyance for an additional period of 30 days, or until May 6, 2025.

The subject of this litigation concerns Plaintiff's I-485 application for adjustment of status and I-601 application for waiver of grounds of inadmissibility. Plaintiff asserts Defendants have unduly delayed the processing of his I-485 and I-601 applications.

The parties have conferred and may resolve this matter without continued litigation. Since the Complaint was filed, USCIS granted Plaintiff's I-601 application, as reported in the fifth Joint Stipulation to Stay the Proceedings (ECF No. 25).

Since the last stay was granted, Plaintiff, through counsel, submitted a parole request, which USCIS forwarded to the third-party agency with the authority to adjudicate it: U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). The parole request is currently under review.

1 ICE's adjudication of the parole request may resolve impediments to the I-485
2 application, which is currently pending with USCIS. The parties have agreed to maintain
3 the I-485 application open during the pendency of the parole request and, if necessary as a
4 result of ICE's decision-making, during the preparation, submission, and full consideration
5 of any additional materials pertinent to the I-485 application.

6 The parties thus request an extension of the stay in the district court proceedings to 7 allow the parties an opportunity to conclude the administrative process. Pending the 8 conclusion of the remaining administrative processing of Plaintiff's I-485 application and 9 parole request, this litigation may become moot.

10 This is the sixth request to stay the proceedings. This request is not sought for 11 purposes of delay or any other improper purpose, but to facilitate the parties' efforts to 12 resolve the matter in a "just, speedy, and inexpensive" manner consistent with Fed. R. Civ.
13 P. 1. The parties reserve the ability to seek additional time to finalize resolution, if 14 necessary.
